Troy Sale Barn Grower's Market Guidelines

Calendar: The TSB Grower's Market will operate Tuesdays, commencing operation on May 31, 2022. The 2022 market season will be from May 31 – October 25, 2022 and will operate from 3:30 – 6:30 p.m. These dates also coincide with the Car Show held at First Citizens Community Bank!

Vendor Qualifications: Vendors must be the growers and producers of at least 80 percent of the fruits, vegetables, herbs, flowers, eggs, baked goods, jams/jellies, maple products, honey, dairy products and other approved high quality craft items they intend to sell. All home-made products and handcrafted items are to be made by the vendor. Craft items should be of juried quality and will be subject to review by the TSB board. Vendors should live within 50 miles of Troy, PA.

Products: All produce and products, sold at the market, must be grown or produced by the vendor or other PA farms within close proximity to the vendor's farm. Items, grown by other local farmers, cannot represent more than 20% of the vendor's display. Vendors cannot sell produce or items purchased at wholesale or at auction for resale at the Troy Sale Barn Grower's Market. Any vendors producing baked goods or other prepared foods must possess a license from the Dept. of Agriculture and follow all packaging and labeling regulations as dictated by that agency. All vendors must follow all local, state and federal guidelines for their particular product lines. The Troy Sale Barn Grower's Market is not responsible for a vendor's failure to abide by any local, state or federal regulations in regards to the vendor's products or the vendor's failure to collect sales tax for items sold.

Vendor Set-up: All vendors are to be set up inside of the barn and ready to do business by the start of market. Each vendor will be assigned a 10' x 10' space inside the barn. Vendors are responsible for their own tables and chairs and all necessary items to run their booth. All vendors are to keep their respective area neat and clean and dispose of garbage/recycling in designated containers. Vendors should keep their booth open for the duration of market and not close early. Outside spaces are also available.

Vendor Conduct: All vendors should occupy the Troy Sale Barn in a professional manner. If any behavior or display is hazardous or offensive to the public or fellow vendors, the vendor may be asked by the market manager to cease such behavior. Failure to abide by such a request will result in removal from the Troy Sale Barn and possible expulsion, as a vendor, from the TSB Grower's Market.

By my signature below, I acknowledge that: A) my acceptance is contingent upon approval of my application, which includes but is not limited to, meeting the criteria for all products and goods allowed to be sold; and B) I will abide by the rules and regulations as outlined above for the Troy Sale Barn Grower's Market.
